

Cultures of Regeneration

Lecture Series

Every Thursday 4.15–5.45pm

in Hörsaal 3075, Unten den Linden 6

2.5.24 Angela Jansen (Research Collective for Decoloniality and Fashion) Richa Sood, (Indian Inst of Art and Design) Jennifer Whitty, (Victoria University of Wellington)

The Global Fashioning Assembly: Reflecting on Responsibility When Meeting Across the Colonial Difference

16.5.24 Cordelia Polinna, (Institut für Resilienz im ländlichen Raum)

Lusatia - approaches for the regeneration of a region

30.5.24 Rachel Joy Harkness, (Edinburgh School of Art)

Designs for Degrowth? Considering Eco-Building's Materials, Making Cultures and Regenerative Potentials

6.6.24 Georg Duda (Julius Wolff Inst., Charité Berlin)

Endogeneous Regeneration - we are able to regenerate but sometimes, healing fails

13.6.24 Tatjana Schneider, (TU Braunschweig)

Prompts for reimagined relationships

20.6.24 Alison Clarke, (University of Applied Arts, Vienna)

Indigenous Entanglements: Early Experiments in Regenerative Design

27.6.24 Charlotte Linton (All Souls College, Oxford)

Re-evaluating traditional practice in the regenerative moment: A case study of natural dyeing in Japan

4.7.24 Stephanie Bunn (University of St Andrews)

Basketry, renewal and regeneration

11.7.24 David Jeevendrampillai (University College London)

Extra-Terrestrial Anthropology: design thinking for a post-planetary social life

Organised by Prof. Dr. Lucy Norris

For more information please go to

Matters of Activity

Image
Space
Material

Exzellenzcluster gefördert durch

DFG Deutsche
Forschungsgemeinschaft